

Ed Davenport Memorial Scholarship

Ed Davenport lived in Long Beach since he was a year old, graduating from Jordan High School where he played football. In 1956, he married his beautiful wife Beverly and joined the Air Force to serve his country for four years. In 1962, he joined the Long Beach Police Department. Ed worked in various Units and Divisions including ten years in the Motor Patrol Unit, and many more as the Range Master at the Academy. One of Corporal Davenport's passions was the SWAT Team, where he served for over 30 years of all capacities. Ed and Beverly have two sons and a daughter. Both sons have followed in their father's footsteps, one a Long Beach Police Sergeant, the other a Murrieta Police Lieutenant. Ed Davenport was a man who contributed to his community by living his life as an example of doing what is right and has served both his Country and City.
